

Legitimation Process with Name Change – Probate Court – Madison County, Alabama

Status of Child's Father

- For the Probate Court to process a legitimation there can be NO father's name listed on the birth certificate
- If the birth certificate lists a father's name, then an order from a higher court (district or circuit) must be presented stating that the father listed on the birth certificate is NOT the father of the child

Required Forms

- Declaration of Legitimation and Change of Name (Noted as "Form A" on the attached) – must be completed by the father of the child and signed/notarized prior to filing in the Probate Office
- Consent to Legitimation and Change of Name (Noted as "Form B" on the attached) – must be completed by the mother of the child and signed/notarized prior to filing in the Probate Office
- Decree Confirming Legitimation and Change of Name (Noted as "Form C" on the attached) must be completed and be ready for the Judge's signature
- There is a blank space for a "CASE NO." at the top of each form – please leave this space blank
- The completed forms must be legible or the court will refuse to accept them

Required Documents

- Clear/legible copy of child's birth certificate
- Clear/legible copy of valid state issued photo identification for both parents

Filing Fee

- Filing fee of $36
- If paying by check please make payable to Judge of Probate

After the Forms, Required Documents and Filing Fee are Submitted

- It generally takes 10-15 business days to review and process a legitimation
- Once the review is complete, the Decree Confirming Legitimation and Change of Name can be picked up from the Probate Office or mailed to your attention

Updating the Birth Certificate is Your Responsibility

- Once you receive the Decree Confirming Legitimation and Change of Name you will complete and submit, along with the required fees, the Alabama Center for Health Statistics Probate Legitimation Information Sheet & Request for Certified Copy of Birth Certificate
- This form is the last sheet of this packet – the state will not accept handwritten forms – you must fill in this form using a typewriter
